Merry Del Val Also Indulges in Other Kinds of Sport.

Foreign Correspondence of The Star. ROME, September 26, 1912. Cardinal Merry del Val, the Vatican secretary of state, has been in the habit of spending his annual holiday in the Chateau Gandolfo, near Rome. But, in consequence of hostile demonstrations organized by the anti-clericals of the neighborhood, the cardinal is this year enjoying his holiday in a villa which has been loaned by a wealthy Catholic of Rome

There the cardinal indulges in all kinds of sports, a habit that he acquired as a result of his English education. Among his-a "cure" who resides on the banks of a small lake near Piediluco. Cardinal O'Connell, Bishop of Boston, Mass., recently sent him a beautiful boat of American manufacture.

Terms of the Lease.

The corporation desirous of mining the coal is to pay $1 for each acre in the tract and a royalty of 61/2 cents a ton for each ton mined during the first five years After that the royalty will be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior, the leasing corporation having the right to renew the lease up to thirty years in all. The government proposes to maintain a rigid supervision of the manner in which the coal is taken from the ground.
